

ACREX 2010 show in India.

In February Patton Refrigeration India exhibited at the ACREX (Air Conditioning & Refrigeration Expo) show in Mumbai, India.

The show was held from Feb 17th to 20th with approximately 350 exhibitor booths and was attended by approximately 18000 ~ 20000 visitors over the four days.

The Patton India booth was most impressive and exhibited many Patton built products with particular interest shown by visitors to our vast range of evaporators.

The show was represented by several Patton global staff, Sameer Handa from Patton NZ, Vinod Rekhi, Sanjay Kapoor, Rajesh Malhotra and Rahul Singh from Patton India, with additional support coming from four of our principle product partners. 'EVCO' - Roberto Zanini from Italy, 'HENRY' - Gordon Flaherty from Scotland, 'FIELDPIECE' - Ruben Duarte & Adolfo Wurts from USA and 'MUELLER' - Ronnie Nilsson from USA. Additional brands "Synergy" and "Think" were also well represented by product.

Of note at the show was the exhibit of Patton equipment by two of our regional distributors. "Infinity", a company with six outlets in Maharashtra, in and around Mumbai and "A S Enterprises" a company distributing in Delhi and the surrounding areas with both displaying selections of our evaporators.

With a huge cross section of visitors from Thailand, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore, Iraq, Vietnam, Indonesia, Korea, Russia, China, Dubai, Turkey, Iran, Philippines, Egypt and all around the world Patton is spreading its name far and wide.